

MAN ON THE STREET

Interviews By Missy Bystrom, Feature Writer

There are varying opinions as to how Valentine's Day originated. Over time though, February 14th has become the date for celebrating St. Valentine's Day, the patron saint of lovers.

Laderians celebrate Valentine's Day different ways in different families. Some give flowers or cards, some spend the night out or just spend extra time together.

Ladera Ranch Moms were asked what they hope that their "sweetie's" will give them this Valentine's Day. Listen up, mates, you can learn something from their surprisingly modest pleasures.

"I would love a spa day" – Gail Grigaux

"I would LOVE a day at the spa!" – Sarah Lowey

"I would like and organized house" – Kathy Lewandowski

"I would enjoy some home-made valentines from my boys" – Erika Thompsen

"I would love a date night" – Annette Franco

"I would love a spa day or a vacation" – Kristi Dunn

"How about a trip to the Philippines and Thailand" – Jen Doyle

"I would love, love, love a couples massage at the surf and sand hotel followed by a nice relaxing lunch at splashes...the ocean, the sunset, pure bliss . . . I hope he reads this!" – Mary McGettigan
